

BIO ZO! GOSPEL CHOIR

ZO! Gospel Choir is the most popular and sought-after choir of the Netherlands. The choir was established in August 2010. Since then ZO! Gospel Choir has toured, to great acclaim, at home and abroad.

The choir performs a repertoire that is firmly rooted in Black Gospel and that crosses over to Soul, RnB with Pop, Jazz and Hip-hop influences. ZO! Gospel Choir has performed and/or recorded with international superstars like Sam Smith, Martin Garrix, Mariah Carey, Kamasi Washington, Oleta Adams, Hugh Jackman, the international lead vocal cast of the musical The Lion King and Grammy Award winners the Metropole Orchestra.

ZO! Gospel Choir is also a very welcome guest on Dutch national television and has appeared in a great number of high-profile TV shows.

In the 2014, 2015 and 2018 ZO! Gospel Choir wrote Dutch music history by organizing three sold-out concerts in the world-famous Paradiso in Amsterdam. During the 2018 concert they also recorded a live EP which will be released in 2019 and 2020. This made them the first ever choir to have achieved this. Once again evidence that ZO! Gospel Choir stands for top of the bill quality.
